Narula Public School, Mogra

■ The first annual concert and awards ceremony of Narula Public School, Mogra, was organised with fanfare over two days at the school auditorium.

The celebrations began with special guests Sardar Taranjit Singh, managing director of JIS Group, and wife Harmeet Kaur lighting the inaugural lamp.

The students of Classes I to XI showcased their talents through a musical, Roots & Wings, that spoke of the importance of being ambitious, achieving heights and at the same time remaining grounded and helpful.

"The musical was my brainchild. The story revolves round a child from a humble background who dreams of joining Nasa and how he manages to take his vision forward. The musical aimed to provide as many students as possible a platform. Children with a range of talents got to showcase their skills and made us very proud," said principal Kamalpreet Kaur.

Kindergarten students also presented theme-based dances. The school song was released on the occasion, its lyrics and music composed by the principal herself. Pianist Rajlakshmi Syam played live to the rendition of the school song by the choir.

Guests on the occasion included Sardar Simarpreet

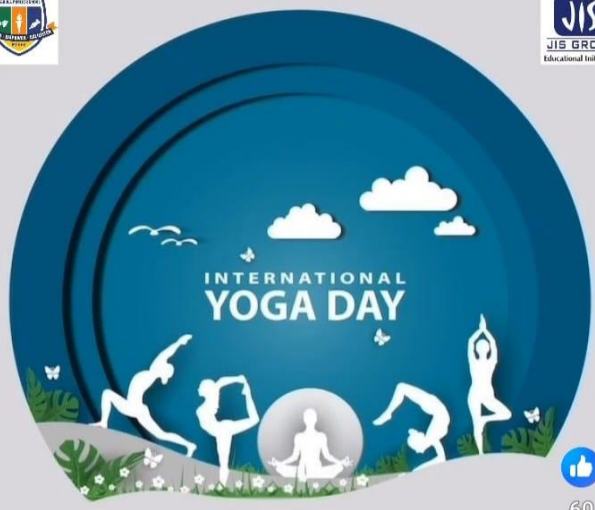

Singh, director of JIS Group, Sardar Harinderpal Singh, trustee of JIS Group, dancer Jaya Seal Ghosh, theatre artiste Ramanjit Kaur, Manoshi Roy Chowdhury, co-chairperson of Techno India group, and Sunita Arora, principal of Delhi Public School, Howrah. The principal presented the annual report.

The students were given awards for their academic proficiency by Sardar Taranjit Singh and other guests.
